

The Consumer Bankers Association has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law and is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. I opposing the weakening of Indiana's law and do not want the exemption to be granted.